Petition launched to save The Buszy

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MORE than 300 people have signed a petition to save a youth centre used by thousands of young people after it emerged it is under threat.

The Buszy in Grafton Gate fears it is going to lose its premises licence after a number of residents in Loughton complained about noise from its monthly music events.

Since January this year, more than 30 groups have used the popular venue and more than 5,000 people have attended events.

If the premises loses its licence, it would be a kick in the teeth for David Cameron's Big Society policy – which the Prime Minister personally launched at The Buszy in May 2011. Three months before the centre had received a Big Society award.

A statement from The Buszy on the online petition says: "All profits raised from our events funds our activities for children and young people. This includes disability youth groups, holiday schemes and weekly activities for young people.

"Lots of other community organisations use our facilities and if we lose our licence we will have to reduce activities and we'll have difficulty keeping the building open."

Denise Davis-Boreham is the chief executive of the Make A Difference (MAD) charity, which runs The Buszy. She told MK NEWS: "I was very surprised that residents in Loughton had complained about noise levels at the Buszy, especially when they have the A5 and the railway station in between. It's a shame that a small number of people want to ruin things for so many people."

Big launch: David Cameron launches his Big Society campaign at The Buszy in 2011 to encourage residents to play a more active role in their community. If the centre closes it will fly in the face of the PM's wishes

One of those who has complained is Loughton Parish Council chairman Peter Todd, who said: "Despite it being a long way away I could hear the music in my own house. It was absolutely deafening and I felt I had to complain as a number of residents had shared similar concerns."

Milton Keynes Council confirmed it has received a number of complaints, but was 'not seeking to close the Buszy'. The centre's licence is due to be discussed on November 27.

Stabbings outside nightclub

FOUR people were stabbed outside a Milton Keynes nightclub in the early hours of Saturday morning.

Three men were stabbed in the abdomen area outside Cookies and Cream in Savoy Crescent at 4.10am, while another was wounded in his lower back.

The latter has since been discharged from Milton Keynes Hospital after receiving treatment.

The other three remain in hospital and are still being treated for their injuries, which are not life-threatening.

Investigating officer, Detective Sergeant Phil Turner-Robson of Milton Keynes CID, said stabbings of this nature are rare in the city and a full investigation has been launched into what happened.

He said: "I am appealing for anyone who witnessed the incident to contact police immediately.

"I would like to reassure the public in Milton Keynes that incidents such as these are not common and that the force is fully investigating the matter."

If you have any information which could help police contact DS Turner-Robson via the 24-hour Thames Valley Police Enquiry Centre on 101.

Alternatively, you can contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111, or online at Crimestoppers-uk.org

Train death man owed investors more than £4m

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A MAN who committed suicide by diving in front of a train owed millions of pounds to dozens of investors, an inquest has been told.

Derek Gill, of Darwen Close, Milton Keynes, was the subject of a police investigation after 42 separate complaints were made by 40 investors who were owed a combined £4,845,500.

He worked for Openwork, which was formerly the Zurich Financial Services, and made the money by asking clients to either write him blank cheques or ones made payable to his personal account.

The fraudulent investments dated back to 1999 and police said that during their investigations they had found a black book detailing methods for how investors could get money back after his death.

Mr Gill also left a note in his trouser pocket stating he had taken his own life without any interference from a third party, and giving contact details for his family as well as the location of his car.

Senior coroner for Milton Keynes, Tom Osborne, told the inquest yesterday that Mr Gill, 66, died of multiple injuries including decapitation.

In a statement read at Crownhill Crematorium, train driver Alan Morris said the train was approaching 50mph when he saw somebody dive in front of it at a crossing after he left Bow Brickhill train station.

But Mr Morris said the train was too close to Mr Gill when he applied the brakes and the London Midland train hit him at 2.30pm on August 13.

Mr Gill's GP, Dr Jawad Ahmad, said there had been no indications of any psychological problems.

Recording a verdict of suicide, Mr Osborne said: "Mr Gill was a man who was under pressure to account for his dealings with his employers."

Chair nightmare: Marie Osborne with Sarah Dockree and MP Mark Lancaster outside the centre

Standing room only at centre

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW state-of-the-art health centre will be opening on Monday – without seats for patients.

Wolverton Health Centre has lost its expected funding from NHS Milton Keynes Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG).

It says an agreement was made with the former NHS Primary Care Trust to provide £120,000 to furnish the centre, but last week CCG said it had no evidence this deal was ever made.

Some desks and chairs have been taken from the old health centre in Gloucester Road that closes on Friday, but the new facility, which is on the same site, is still 50 chairs short.

This means it will open without chairs in consultation and waiting rooms to avoid a £270,000 fine for not opening on time and delaying the demolition of the old centre.

Sarah Dockree, chairman of Wolverton Health Centre's patient participation group (PPG) said: "It is a ludicrous situation. We have a new building we have been waiting 11 years for but at the last minute we have no furniture.

"We are reaching out to organisations to see if they have any spare chairs."

Marie Osborne, from Future Wolverton, said: "We have a strong community and we are appealing to organisations to pull together."

NHS England offered the centre a loan but it rejected it and has spent £70,000 of its own funds ordering chairs, which it hopes will arrive in four weeks.

MP for Milton Keynes North, Mark Lancaster, who has supported the PPG, said: "Like many who have worked hard to deliver this fantastic state-of-the-art health centre, I'm dismayed it's opening could have been delayed over a disagreement over the funding of its fitting out.

"I remain determined to do all I can to ensure an early resolution to this misunderstanding."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

Call to support shops

YOUR story 'The changing face of our high streets' on November 6 showed how small shopkeepers are managing to keep their heads above water in difficult times.

Most people are very concerned about Britain's high streets where 80 per cent of independent shops have closed.

Supermarket growth is at the root of the problem. Half of the turnover of independent retailers goes back into the local community, whereas only five per cent of a supermarket's turnover is returned.

Local shops tend to source locally, yet 90 per cent of supermarket apples are grown in France, even though British apples are available for most of the year.

And about a third of the UK's vegetable crop isn't harvested because it doesn't 'look right' for the big supermarkets who control 97 per cent of the grocery market.

Stony Stratford and Newport Pagnell high streets will suffer the effects of the two new supermarkets in Shenley and Newport.

Supermarkets claim they create new jobs, but between 2008 and 2010, the big three – Asda, Tesco and Sainsbury's – pledged 67,000 new jobs, but only created 28,200; less than half. And 276 jobs are lost locally every time a supermarket opens.

There is a battle between the supermarkets for market share, profits and dividends. Any 'social provision' is merely an adjunct to getting a foothold into a local area.

Milton Keynes has seen supermarkets buy land. One example is Stantonbury Local Centre, which is now owned by Sainsbury's. A public asset handed over to a private company, not being developed, but high rents are being charged.

So, what is to be done?

A 120 strong broad coalition, Local Works, which includes the Women's Institute, Countryside Alliance, Age UK, Woodland Trust, CAMRA, UNISON, 38 Degrees etc, is calling for the Government to give councils the power, under the Sustainable Communities Act, to put a levy on the large supermarkets.

The money raised will be spent to help boost local jobs, trade, services and communities.

A levy of 8.5 per cent on retail outlets with a rateable value of not less than £500,000 would go a long way to stop the decline of our high streets.

Letters to Milton Keynes councillors calling for such action would be a good first step.

John Pinkerton
Stantonbury Fields

This is poor judgement

IT WAS disappointing to read that MK North MP, Mark Lancaster, claimed £705.61 for electricity bills at his second home in London (MK NEWS 6 November).

At a time when thousands of his constituents are in fuel poverty and having to decide whether to eat or heat their homes and many more are facing a cold winter, his decision to claim for his electricity shows insensitivity and poor judgement.

Mr Lancaster is a well paid MP and he has done nothing illegal but his actions will be seen by many as morally dubious.

Last year 25,000 older people died of cold related illnesses. The energy companies are making excessive profits and are increasing their prices again by an inflation busting average of nine per cent and David Cameron's only response is to tell us to cope with the rip off price rises by putting on a jumper!

If Mr Lancaster wishes to attempt to redeem himself with his constituents may I suggest that he writes out a cheque for £705.61 and gives it to the Milton Keynes Food Bank.

They are under great pressure to feed the increasing number of our fellow MK citizens who, as a result of his Government's policies, are not able to feed themselves or their families.

So come on Mr Lancaster – do the right thing and give the MK Food Bank the money!

Dave Brunwin
Stony Stratford

Pods don't belong here

I THOUGHT Milton Keynes Council's idea of putting up charging points for almost nonexistent electric cars was daft enough until I read in MK NEWS about its latest wheeze.

Now it is supporting a plan to let loose driverless, silent running pods. How would you fancy one of these things creeping up behind you?

You would think the Government could spend this money on better things rather than frittering it away on a crackpot scheme like this. I know they have them at Heathrow Airport but that is a different set-up. There are designated people free corridors, flashing lights and warning sirens. How do you fancy concentrating in the office with that racket going on, because they may well have to resort to it.

No this idea should be reserved for the likes of television shows and comic books.

Anita Rose
Church Lees, Great Linford

A time to remember

TRADITIONALLY on Remembrance Sunday I attend the Newport Pagnell and New Bradwell services and parades and this year was no exception.

They are always poignant and well supported.

However, what struck me particularly this year was the increased numbers of the local community who turned out to show their respect.

It seems apparent to me that the recognition for our servicemen and women is even more so in the forefront of all our minds.

On that note, and as a member of the Armed Forces myself, I'd like to offer my thanks to all those who attended.

It means a great deal to the members of the Armed Forces knowing they have the support of our community.

Mark Lancaster TD MP

Celebrating the 175th anniversary of Wolverton Works

WE CAN look back with satisfaction at the Wolverton 175 anniversary, despite Wolverton Works' recent turbulent times.

Next year looks good for new owners Knorr-Bremse as a new contract kicked off with the arrival of a train on October 29 bringing carriages for an overhaul.

As we consider what Christmas presents to buy, there are three Wolverton 175 events which may help!

Following the hugely popular W175 evenings at Milton Keynes Museum, two more Wolverton 175 talks have been arranged by the Milton Keynes Library Service featuring Phil Marsh, author of the official Wolverton 175 anniversary book The Full Works.

The carriages arrive at Wolverton Works

The first will be at Wolverton Library on December 3 featuring Leo Coleman, who managed the building of the Royal Train in 1975-6. The second will be at Central Milton Keynes Library on December 12.

They both take place from 6.30-8pm with a £2 admission charge. Part of the talk will reveal why The Full Works was recently featured in the national press and on German television.

Wolverton Works' artist John Kitchen will launch his stunning Newport Nobby painting, the Newport Pagnell train, at these events, as well as showing other examples of his work.

The highly popular Wolverton Lantern Festival takes place on December 7 with an afternoon Christmas market in Foundation House, Wolverton. Phil Marsh will be joined by Wolverton author Brian Dunleavy and Wolverton artists John Kitchen and Phillip Webb.

All three events continue to raise funds for the Wolverton Works War Memorial to be erected at The Works next year – the centenary of The Great War.

Opposite sides: Mayor Brian White with his wife Leena, who was born in Finland, at stadiummk

Finn win no good for Mayor!

MILTON Keynes Mayor Brian White has more reason than most to hope England Under-21s beat Finland's youngsters at stadiummk tomorrow night.

His wife Leena is from Oulu, in the north of Finland, and he cannot wait for the 7.45pm tie.

"Of all the countries it could have been!" said Councillor White.

"I just laughed my head off when I found out it was Finland who England would be playing here.

"I think there might be one or two points of banter during the night and if England win I'm not sure whether I'll get any tea!"

Cllr White added that he knew 40 Finnish families living in Milton Keynes who would be attending the match.

Cigarette blamed for Dr's fire death

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A FIRE that killed a former English lecturer in her home was 'more than likely' started by a cigarette.

Dr Kathlyn Henderson was found dead by firefighters who were called to a blaze at her flat in St Ledgers Court, Great Linford, at 7.58pm on May 19 this year.

Yesterday, an inquest into her death was told Dr Henderson, 57, who had previously worked at The Open University, had problems with alcohol and smoking – in particular extinguishing her cigarettes in a responsible manner.

It was a subject constantly raised by her former long-term partner Kenneth Collins.

"The fire services had attended our house many times before because she hadn't put her cigarette out properly. One fire had destroyed our living room," he told MK NEWS.

Mr Collins had been Dr Henderson's partner for 17 years. While they had split up just four months prior to her death they had remained friends. He had visited her just minutes before the fire started and was arrested on suspicion of murder before being cleared a few days later.

He said: "When I heard the house was on fire I knew what had caused it. It was no surprise to me.

"I will miss her, she was such an intelligent woman."

Summing up at Crownhill Crematorium, coroner Tom Osborne said: "The cause of death was inhalation of smoke, likely burns and alcohol intoxication."

He recorded a verdict of accidental death.

Hospitals unite for new review

NHS clinical commissioning groups for Milton Keynes and Bedfordshire will work together to review their local health services.

They have united as the neighbouring groups share problems with sustainable hospital services and growing populations.

They will work with national agencies including Monitor, the NHS Trust Development Authority and NHS England to assess how to meet the needs of patients in future.

The 'innovative' review – the first of its kind – will analyse current provision of health services.

Residents grill police chief

RESIDENTS in Fishermead were given the chance to grill Police and Crime Commissioner Anthony Stansfeld at the Trinity Centre on Monday evening.

More than 40 people also turned up to hear him speak about his future plans for the area.

Mr Stansfeld, who was elected in November last year, revealed that he would 'more than likely' be raising council tax precepts for the police by a further two per cent next year.

Big knitters' woolly wonders

KNITTERS in Milton Keynes have made more than 3,900 little woolly hats this year for Age UK and innocent's Big Knit campaign.

The hats are popped on innocent smoothie bottles throughout November and for each one sold, the firm donates 25p to Age UK's Spread the Warmth campaign, helping to fund national and local winter projects.

The hats can be found on the top of innocent bottles in the shape of fruit, animals, people or simply traditional bobble hats in stores across the country.

Jane Palmer, chief executive at Age UK Milton Keynes, said: "We're grateful that so many local knitters have got behind the Big Knit – this campaign couldn't happen without their support.

"The funds raised will go a long way towards supporting our winter warmth projects which are vital in helping older people through this difficult time of year."

Council's page is 'a shambles'

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE new Milton Keynes Council website has been slammed as 'shambolic' by councillors and residents.

Rob Middleton, who is chairman of the Corporate Affairs and Performance Select Committee, wants a probe into what went wrong.

He said: "The concept of making it more accessible was promising, but it has been poorly executed.

"The new site is poorly worded, links are broken and information can't be accessed or it isn't there. The public simply want to be able to contact us or find information as easily and quickly as possible. If it is our shop window, we look shambolic."

Cllr Middleton has said he has had 'a number' of complaints from residents, while fellow councillor Douglas McCall said the website was 'poorly implemented'.

A council spokesman said: "In the six weeks since the new website went live we have received 11 complaints which have all been responded to. We welcome all feedback about the new look."

Strikes in city today

CITY firefighters are joining the Fire Brigade Union in strikes today between 10am and 2pm. Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service is reassuring residents it has plans in place to continue its cover and will be prioritising emergency calls.

School competition

A CHRISTMAS card competition for primary schools ends on Friday. Open to year five and six pupils, the winning design will be sent to the Queen. This year's theme is your favourite Milton Keynes building at Christmas or in winter. For more information call Festus Akinbusoye 01908 686830.

Search on for 'dangerous' dog

A HUNT is on for an imported dog that could potentially be carrying rabies.

Officers from Milton Keynes Council are keen to trace the whereabouts of the English bulldog puppy, which is believed to have been recently imported from Hungary.

Others have been recovered and are now in quarantine.

Karen Ford, head of the council's Regulatory Unit said: "The inoculation process takes a set period of time to kick in and we think this puppy is simply too young to have had all of its relevant injections. We would urge the buyer to get in touch with us."

Centre is 'sorting' problems

FOLLOWING a community campaign asking for answers over the running of an arts centre, its trustees have asked for help, not criticism.

A spokesman for the Trustees of Creed Street Art Centre in Wolverton, which took over in April, said: "We inherited large debts and a building which needed substantial work. The wave of false accusations levelled at the charity are not helping it. We are working to sort these problems that impact our current activities."

Find out what happens to your recycling at our 20th Anniversary

Milton Keynes' recycling factory in Old Wolverton is 20 year old this month and to mark the occasion the council's Recycling Team is holding a family-friendly Open Day on Saturday, 16th November 2013. Residents are invited to come along any time between 10am and 1pm - although booking is required via our website.

The Recycling Factory was the first purpose-built facility of its kind in the UK back in 1993 and over the years it has hosted many visitors from other councils and overseas who were interested to know more about processing mixed recycling with state-of-the-art technology.

The free event will include:

- Tours into the Recycling Factory along the viewing gallery walkway to see the machinery and staff at work
- Details on our future plans for waste and recycling in Milton Keynes
- Chance to pick up recycling leaflets and containers
- Opportunity for children to see inside our waste trucks and chat to our waste collectors
- Crafts and activities for children
- Child-friendly talks at 10.30am /11.30am /12.30pm

Booking is essential – see our website www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/20thanniversary for details.

Cllr David Hopkins, Milton Keynes Council's Cabinet Member for Waste Management and the Environment, said: "We are justifiably proud of our recycling factory. We were the first in the UK to offer a borough-wide recycling service to every home back in 1992 and continued this success the following year by building this fine facility and 20 years on it's still leading the way in recycling processing and our recycling rate has soared from 12% to an impressive 54% in that time.

"Our 20th Anniversary Open Day offers families the chance to see what happens to their recycling and we're sure they will be impressed so please come along and join us."

Graham Warren, Regional Operations Director from Viridor, who run the factory on the council's behalf, added: "The open day will show local residents how their efforts at home are put to good use by our team on site and see first-hand the high-tech equipment we have. We're proud to be working with Milton Keynes Council to transform waste into valuable raw materials for new products and packaging."

Our Open Day heralds the start of European Week for Waste Reduction, a Europe-wide initiative aimed at encouraging residents to recycle more of their waste – and not only in their homes but also at work and on the move.

The event is suitable for children age 6 years and above - children must be supervised at all times. The factory is wheelchair accessible. Visitors are requested to wear sensible footwear as high heels and open-toe shoes are not permitted inside the factory.

The recycling factory is located at: Colts Holm Road, Old Wolverton MK12 5QD - there is plenty of parking (please use the entrance marked 'cars only').

To book your place visit www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/20thanniversary. For any further queries please call 01908 252312.

Luxury camping plan for disabled

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

AN OUTDOOR education centre could provide the area's first luxury camping experience for disabled youngsters.

Action4Youth is looking to raise £180,000 to build two yurts at the city's Caldecotte Xperience.

The facilities would feature special hydraulic beds and underground heating and up to 40 children will be able to stay in them.

Rich Wyatt, head of the centre, pictured, said the feedback he has received from schools and other groups working with disabled children has been very positive.

"We want to increase disabled access here and we're very big on things like that," he said.

"The advantage with yurts is that they are bigger so we can get more bunk beds in which means more children can stay and they are much more insulated than smaller tents.

"There isn't anything like this in the area so that is why we want to do this.

"We have had a massive response from people saying it would be great to be able to do this because it is very difficult for disabled children to go camping so this has become the main driver for us."

Mr Wyatt added that Action4Youth wants to organise more activities for disabled children at the centre and a specially adapted abseiling activity has already been planned.

Anybody wanting to help raise money for the yurts can email rich.wyatt@action4youth.org

FACTS ABOUT YURTS

- They originate from Mongolia
- Yurts are usually round, portable structures used by nomadic tribes
- The first written description of a yurt used as a dwelling was recorded in Greece between 484 and 424 BC
- A yurt is also known as a Üy (pronounced ooee), Ev, Ög, or Ger

THE BENEFIT OF REGULAR PENSION REVIEWS

If you have a pension other than a guaranteed one such as an annuity or a final salary one from which you are already taking an income, how often do you review it?

Well in my experience very few people regularly review their pensions unless they have a financial adviser. In fact many people don't even know who their pensions are with let alone how much they are worth, how they are performing or how much is being deducted in charges. Their apathy towards pensions is truly surprising but also worrying. If you recognise yourself as one of these people don't be surprised. You are in the majority.

So why should you regularly review your pension?

Because if you don't review it regularly it will in all likelihood be costing you dearly.

I went through a spell of 15 years when I only visited my dentist once every 5 years. I thought I was being clever because nothing could go wrong with my teeth surely could it? How wrong I was. Eventually I developed tooth decay in one of my teeth and after several expensive and painful visits to the dentist including root canal work I lost that tooth. Ever since I have had regular 6 monthly dental check ups. My teeth and gums have continued to be in good shape ever since. I paid dearly for my apathy.

Well if you are not regularly reviewing your pension then your apathy could cost your financial health dearly in much the same way as my dental health suffered from my apathy.

The benefit of a regular pension review is that you can review the performance of your pension, make changes where required e.g. fund switches, make sure you remain on track regarding your retirement goals, review your income needs, consider switching your pension to a new provider etc.

In my experience clients who have regular pension reviews get far more out of their pensions and enjoy a more worry free retirement.

If you are approaching retirement or are already retired and need advice why not get in touch?

In the spotlight: The future of Cofferidge Close in Stony Stratford will be discussed at a public inquiry next year

Cofferidge Close row rumbles on

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A BATTLE between residents and developers over the building of a new supermarket will continue in a public inquiry.

In March, Milton Keynes Council refused an application from CBRE Investors to demolish existing buildings at Cofferidge Close in Stony Stratford and develop a new supermarket.

The authority said the supermarket would be an 'over development' and result in the loss of important community facilities, such as an NHS dentist.

CBRE had a period of time in which it could contest the decision and on the last possible day it lodged an appeal.

The development will now be discussed at a three-day inquiry, starting on March 4.

Terry Cook is a member of the Save Cofferidge Close group, which has been fighting against the development.

The group, along with Stony Stratford Town Council, has been given 'rule six' status by the planning inspectorate, granting it equal status with CBRE and MK Council at the enquiry.

Terry said: "It is too big a supermarket to fit into such a small space and many residents feel it would be detrimental to our High Street.

"We are glad we have been given the chance to cross-examine CBRE at the inquiry."

Badminton HQ one step closer

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

On the move: The National Badminton Centre at Loughton Lodge

What do you think?
www.mkweb.co.uk

PLANS to build a new badminton arena have moved one step closer to reality – after a deal was struck over land.

Milton Keynes Council has agreed to transfer a 999-year lease to The Parks Trust for Emberton Country Park – in exchange for its land at Loughton Lodge.

The land at Loughton Lodge, which is the current home of the National Badminton Centre, will then be developed in order to finance a new arena at MK Bowl.

Councillors agreed to the exchange at a cabinet meeting last Tuesday and called it a 'win win' deal.

Following the meeting Badminton England's chief executive, Adrian Christy, told MK NEWS that the project was now 'closer than ever' to happening.

He said: "We're getting closer and closer. Of course until contracts are signed you can never say with absolute certainty, but we've not been in a better shape than we are now."

He added the English Table Tennis Association will move to MK to use the centre. It is hoped a construction partner can be announced by January and building work can start in spring. The centre is scheduled to open in summer 2015.

The deal means The Parks Trust will take on the running of Emberton Country Park and has expressed 'a strong desire' to improve facilities.

Speaking at the meeting, Cllr Peter Geary, cabinet member for communities and public realm, said: "This deal is a real plus point as it [Emberton Country Park] needs investment that this council cannot currently afford. I believe we will see an enhanced country park with investment going into it over the next few years."

Afterwards David Foster, chief executive of The Parks Trust, said: "We don't have any clear plans for the park, but it's looking tired. Pathways need resurfacing and toilet and shower facilities improving and we'll look to work with park users."

A look to the future: An artist's impression of what the new home of Olney Town Colts could be like

Club nets £60,000 to help build home

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A FOOTBALL club's dream of building its own home has been kick started thanks to £60,000 worth of funding.

Olney Town Colts is also hoping the facility at the town's recreation fields will also be used by some of the area's other clubs, including running, yoga and tennis.

The club, which has 318 players who are members of 24 teams, has received £40,000 from Sport England and £20,000 from The National Hockey Foundation.

It is now aiming to submit a planning application for the building, which would boast changing rooms for players and officials and a small space for functions, to Milton Keynes Council in the next few weeks.

Over the last five years football camps and events have helped the Colts raise £15,000 towards the facility.

But the club's chairman, Ian Stokes, said: "Without these donations from Sport England and The National Hockey Foundation we would never have got the project off the ground.

"The facility will mean we will be able to do more summer camps during the holidays and have better facilities for the many kids. We also want it to be a true community facility, not purely for football but open to other clubs."

The plans by the Colts, which has 23 teams for boys aged five to 17 and one for over 18s, were given the thumbs up by Olney Town Council on Monday last week.

If they are approved by MK Council the club hopes the building will be ready by the start of the next football season in April 2014.

Making Christmas a little bit sweeter

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

AS WE begin to think about plans for our traditional Christmas meal, many of us will take for granted the luxury of being able to afford such a feast.

But hundreds of people across Milton Keynes won't be able to have a treat this Christmas and so MK NEWS – along with our website MKWeb – is aiming to spread some festive cheer and help those most in need.

This week we are launching our Selection Box campaign and we are calling on all our readers to help.

We're urging you to donate selection boxes which we will hand over to MK Food Bank.

We'll be accepting donations at both the MK NEWS office in Fox Milne and the MK Community Foundation office in Midsummer Boulevard between 8.30am and 4.30pm Monday to Friday. The boxes will then be distributed by MK Food Bank over the festive period.

Rebecca Savage, business development manager at MK Food Bank, said: "At Christmas many families can't afford treats that we all take for granted.

"We have seen an increase in families with three or four children who are struggling because of the changes in welfare benefits.

"At the moment the food parcels only usually contain a packet of biscuits as a luxury item, as well as the normal staples such as pasta, so to have a selection box would be a real treat."

For more information on how you can help the needy this Christmas, log on to www.mkweb.co.uk

Big unveiling: Milton Keynes Mayor Brian White reveals the centrepiece of the MK Rose during the launch on Saturday at Campbell Park

Launch is 'rosy' despite the rain

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS, dignitaries and even rock stars braved the poor weather to attend the official launch of MK Rose.

The monument, in Campbell Park, is made up of 140 pillars in the shape of a flower head – with each pillar representing a different day, person or organisation. It was built and funded by The Parks Trust and the Cenotaph Trust.

The centrepiece of the Rose was unveiled on Saturday by the Mayor of Milton Keynes, Councillor Brian White.

Pillars were brought to life with events that included former Whitesnake guitarist Bernie Marsden playing a tribute to Jim Marshall at the Father of Loud pillar. There was also a demonstration by members of the Red Bull pit crew, Moribayassa African Drummers celebrating World Music Day and a performance of Amazing Grace by MK's Diamond Theatre Group. The event was compered by Mark Niel, MK's Poet Laureate, who had written a piece especially for the launch.

Gavin Anderson, trustee of the Cenotaph Trust, said: "It's been an emotional and long journey, but the Rose looks better than I ever imagined."

Briony Fox, head of community engagement at The Parks Trust, said: "It was brilliant seeing such a diverse group of people coming together to celebrate the Rose opening."

City pays respects

Memorial opens

AN 88-YEAR-OLD war veteran from Beanhill officially opened Coffee Hall's first war memorial on Remembrance Sunday.

Bill Marshall served alongside James Bond author Ian Fleming in the Second World War Special Commandos 30 Assault Unit.

On Armistice Day on Monday schools from within the Woughton parish also joined members of the armed forces to lay wreaths and plant crosses of remembrance.

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

PEOPLE across the city paid their respects this week to the war heroes who have made the ultimate sacrifice while serving their country.

Milton Keynes fell silent at 11am on Remembrance Sunday and on Monday's Armistice Day in memory of the brave men and women who have lost their lives.

Numerous services took place on both days, including ones at Church Green Road in Bletchley, Horsefair Green in Stony Stratford, Aylesbury Street in Wolverton, the High Street in Newport Pagnell, Market Square in Olney, Clock Tower Memorial in New Bradwell and Jonathans in Coffee Hall.

Milton Keynes North MP Mark Lancaster accompanied MK Mayor Brian White to the Sunday services in Newport Pagnell and New Bradwell.

As a serving soldier, Mr Lancaster attended in his uniform. He said: "It was tremendous to see yet again an increase in visitors with more than a thousand attending the two services.

"As a serviceman I wanted to thank everyone who came as it means so much to our armed forces.

"On days like these we can remember those who have fallen and also to remind us of those who are serving in Afghanistan now.

"We should remember the sacrifice people have made and continue to make for our country's freedom."

Councillor White said: "The number of young people at the events was really outstanding.

"Bringing communities together is what the days are all about, which was witnessed across the city."

After the opening of MK Rose on Saturday a service was held on Monday, along with others around the city to mark Armistice Day.

Cllr White added: "It was poignant to use the Rose where both the Lord Lieutenant Sir Henry Aubrey-Fletcher, myself and chairman of the area's British Legion Mike Barry laid wreaths."

Keeping it local: Rob Middleton, centre, with traders from Wolverton who are supporting Small Business Saturday next month

Call to 'shop local'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

SHOPPERS are being urged to use their high street and support independent traders.

The UK's first Small Business Saturday will take place on December 7.

The campaign, backed by Prime Minister David Cameron, aims to celebrate local shops and encourage people to use them.

Milton Keynes Council has thrown its weight behind the idea and is planning to hold events from December 2 to 15 to mark the occasion.

Some of the activities planned include a treasure hunt in small businesses, a chance for customers to vote for their favourite local company and an exhibition providing support for start-ups and small firms.

Many retailers are also being encouraged to run their own special deals and events for customers.

The event follows MK NEWS' article last week looking into the future of our towns' high streets.

Wolverton councillor Rob Middleton said: "The idea behind this initiative is pretty simple – our high streets are so important and we all know that.

"The question is, how can we make sure they continue to prosper?

"With Christmas on the way, we could head to our local high street to buy our family's presents.

"Spending money in our local high street shops is the best way to make sure they continue to thrive."

Enjoy a rip-roaring night with comedian

REGULAR Mock the Week and Have I Got News For You panellist Ed Byrne is bringing his Roaring Forties tour to Milton Keynes Theatre tomorrow night.

Following on from the successes of his last shows Crowd Pleaser and Different Class, Irish comedy star Ed is back on the road following a month long run at the Edinburgh Fringe this summer.

However happily Ed slides into middle age, he isn't ready for the slippers and woolly jumper quite yet.

Still as angry as he ever was, you wouldn't want to be on the receiving end of one of his withering rants.

A self-confessed 'miserable old git' since the age of 23, Ed is now in his 40s. While for others this might result in a crisis that prompts the purchase of a sports car, Ed embraces middle age with open arms.

Family life (he is now a father-of-two) and everyday frustrations all come in for a pasting with hilarious results as Ed casts his curmudgeonly comic eye over his life.

It promises to be a rip-roaring night that you won't want to miss.

Tickets cost £27.40 and are available from www.atgtickets.com/miltonkeynes

festivefun

ONE of Hollywood's 'biggest' stars will be leading a Christmas parade at one of the city's shopping centres on Friday.

Warwick Davis, who is starring in pantomime Snow White and The Seven Dwarves at Milton Keynes Theatre, will be leading the parade at thecentre:mk to launch The Land of Enchanted Dreams Christmas display.

Following the procession, from Marks and Spencer to Middleton Hall at 4.30pm, Santa's Grotto will open in the fairytale castle until 6pm on Christmas Eve.

Throughout Middleton Hall visitors will be able to see Snow White and her friends in a range of scenes, including marvelling at the giant gem tree. They can also take a ride on the train, donate coins to this year's wishing pool and browse the Christmas cabins for gift ideas and stocking fillers for their loved ones.

The traditional carousel will be back and there will be interactive mirrors and games for families to enjoy.

To visit Santa's Grotto, or book a ride on the train, visit thecentremk.com or call 0843 178 1304. The display is open until January 2, 2014.

JAMES Frost is the managing director of Frosts Garden Centre in Woburn Sands. In this month's column for MK LIFE he talks about how to prepare your garden in the lead up to the winter

NOVEMBER is the time for tidying up the garden, removing debris from around the plants and vegetables and shortening growth on roses and other plants that may be susceptible to windrock in the winter months.

You also need to think about protection from winter feeding animals such as rabbits. Fence in the garden where possible and protect your brassica's from pigeon damage.

Late harvesting of apples and pears is still possible and in the veg garden brassicas and leeks are ready. Once we have had a frost parsnips and brussel sprouts will also be ready for harvest.

You should finish off putting in spring flowering bulbs, while tulips can be planted up until the end of November.

Shrubs and trees can be planted right through the dormant period to ensure their roots are established before spring. And if you like the heady scent of sweet peas in the summer, now is the best time to sow seeds to ensure you have strong plants for next year. In addition you can sow hardy annual seeds direct into the ground.

Make sure you have plenty of fleece and bubble wrap to cover up the stems of less hardy plants like palms and cordylines in the cold weather.

The Card Ninja Javier Jarquin is coming to the red dot bar at DoubleTree Hilton, stadium-mk, on Friday.

There will be several acts supporting him, including Mark Restuccia, who has been a finalist in several competitions such as the prestigious BBC New Comedy Award in 2011.

Compere Chris Mayo, observational comedienne Adrienne Coles, award-winner Paul David Collins and Davin Eadie make up the rest of the line-up.

Entry costs £10. To book your ticket visit thecomedycow.ticketsource.co.uk

walkingdead

I'VE started watching The Walking Dead series from the very beginning on LoveFilm and it's certainly not one for the faint-hearted, writes Scott Kirk.

It's about a world where everybody has become zombies apart from a select group of humans and if you like your programmes quirky and upbeat, this one is not for you.

The costumes and make-up on the zombies are fantastic and as a viewer there are genuine moments of dread as you wonder how they're going to get out of particular situations. I'm always a fan of a cliffhanger and these are in abundance in this show.

Zombies have never really scared me, but this programme has completely turned that on its head as these people question whether there is any point in even existing in a world where the living dead rule.

It operates at a slower pace than a lot of series, which I find gives more time for characters to really develop so that when the action begins to bite, you really do care about whether they live or die.

It is also very well acted and I can't wait to catch up with the fourth series currently showing on Fox on Friday nights.

ONE Hundred Foot II is the second gathering of filmmakers and artists' 16mm films at MK Gallery tomorrow.

Curated by Jim Hobbs, the free event will feature artists such as Luke McCreadie, Bea Haut and Joanna Byrne.

A 16mm film consists of 100 feet, which equates to just three minutes for filmmakers to create their pieces.

There will be 19 films shown and topics vary from collages to short sketches and footage of events that have been found.

For more information about the event, taking place at 7pm, visit mkgallery.org

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport intends to make an Order on the A5 Trunk Road in Milton Keynes to allow works to install traffic signs on the A5 Railway Bridge situated west of the A5/A421 Redmoor Roundabout to be carried out in safety.

The works, which would take place over 1 night (10.00pm–5.00am), are expected to begin on, or after, Saturday 7 December 2013 and would be carried out using a combination of either a full slip road closure or lane closures.

The effect of the Order would be to close the A5 westbound entry slip road leading from the A5/A421 Redmoor Roundabout, diverting A5 traffic eastbound to the A4146 Bletcham Way/Caldecotte Roundabout, there to turn and return on the A5 westbound.

The closure and diversion route would be clearly signed throughout the works period.

The Order would come into force on 2 December 2013 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

Potter thinks Dons should be higher in table despite injuries

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS midfielder Darren Potter is disappointed the club is not higher in the League One table despite a multitude of injuries.

The likes of Antony Kay, David Martin and Stephen Gleeson and many others have succumbed to injuries at various points in 2013, meaning the Dons have struggled to field consistent line-ups.

Potter is one of the few players to have had a regular run in the team, having played every league game this season, and he thinks changing the team can be disruptive.

"I think this season has been an up-and-down one to be honest," said the midfielder.

"We'd like to be higher than we are in the league but I'm sure every club will feel that way.

"We're there or thereabouts but we feel that we should be a couple of places further up the table.

"When you look back at it, it probably is difficult when the starting line-up is changing all the time.

"In the moment you don't look at it like that because it's the next game but when you look back at it, it can become disruptive.

"When there are so many changes it can upset the apple-cart slightly."

The injuries have meant the Dons have relied on younger players this season, and one of those, Brendan Galloway, impressed by scoring his first senior goal on Saturday.

Potter said his quality as well as others such as Dele Alli and George Baldock was there for all to see.

"They can be anything they want to be," he said.

"They've had a handful of games and done themselves more than enough justice."

Dons are not having a game this weekend as the trip to Oldham Athletic was called off because of the Latics' three international call-ups, leaving Potter disappointed.

Praise for youth: Brendan Galloway, celebrating against Halifax, has been praised by Darren Potter along with other youngsters at the club

"I wanted to play the game but it is what it is and there's nothing we can do about it," he said.

"I think with the training regime this week, it's probably going to be tougher than what we would have had if we did have a game."

The postponement means three weeks will have elapsed between league games when the Dons entertain Bradford City a week on Saturday, and Potter admits that it can take time to get back into the swing of normal proceedings.

"We know what it's like when you play a team which has had a 10-day break because you find they can be rusty," said the midfielder.

"People think they'll be fresh but you want to keep playing games and keep busy to keep ticking those games off."

Potter's regular midfield partner Stephen Gleeson returned to the line-up for the Halifax game, and he said it is good to have his midfield partner back in the starting line-up.

"Me and Glees have struck up a great relationship since we've come here and it is always difficult when there's chopping and changing so it's great to have someone of his ability back," he said.

The Dons defeated FC Halifax Town in the first round of the FA Cup on Saturday, and they have another favourable draw when they entertain Conference South outfit Dover Athletic at the beginning of December.

Last year's FA Cup antics are still fresh in the mind for many Dons fans, and Potter wants the club to go on a similar run this year.

"We've got through the first round of the FA Cup and it's another draw to come at home which gives us a real chance to get into the third round and test ourselves again against another big team.

"We want to do the same that we did last year and you always want to go as far as you can in the cup competitions, but especially the FA Cup because it means so much to so many people."

MK Dons Head of Coaching GARY WADDOCK writes exclusively for MK News every week

THE Premier League title race looks like it's hotting up after Manchester United beat Arsenal 1-0 at the weekend.

That result has opened the division right up and United are right back in it after that win.

I think this season is too close to call and it's way too early in the season to be predicting who is going to win the Premier League, but it was an interesting weekend.

Everyone was predicting Man City but they've lost games and you can be sure that there will be twists and turns before the end of the season so who knows who will win?

With it being this close it certainly makes it exciting and that's the case at the bottom end of the table as well.

Sunderland's result against Man City pulls clubs closer to them and it's a real credit to them for getting that result.

This weekend we have a free one after the Oldham game got called off due to their international call-ups.

I'd rather have the game on personally because it just keeps everything ticking over.

But unfortunately we can't play the game so Karl and I will be picking a game each to go to and we can watch some of our upcoming opponents.

So it won't be a free weekend when we're not doing anything for Karl and myself!

It's very rare to have an opportunity like this to watch our future opposition so we aim to take it.

We got a good win against FC Halifax Town on Saturday and it's good to get through to the next round of the FA Cup.

Playing Dover Athletic at home in round two will be similar to playing Halifax – it's a real good game for them as well as us.

We need to make sure we do everything right again and be totally professional about our performance, but it is good to be at home again in the cup.

Ten-man Olney bravely hold out for a point

NEWPORT Pagnell Town lost 4-2 to fellow strugglers Sleaford Town in the United Counties Premier League.

Jack Pemberton's 25 yard volley gave Sleaford the lead after 22 minutes, but that didn't last long as John Thorpe equalised.

Seven minutes before half time Sleaford were awarded a spot kick.

Josh McAdoo saved Scott Coupland's penalty but Fraser Cobb followed up to make it 2-1 to Sleaford.

Ben Garrick added a third after 56 minutes, and a cracking strike from David Hone clinched the points for Sleaford.

Ben Clarke scored a 78th minute consolation for Newport.

A brave performance from 10-man Olney Town earned them a hard-fought point at home to Rothwell Corinthians in Division One. James Wardell put Olney in front after four minutes but they were reduced to 10 men on the quarter-hour as Matt Redding scored a penalty to make it 1-1.

It meant Olney were a man down for 75 minutes but they battled to earn an impressive point.

Two late goals denied Stony Stratford Town in their 2-1 defeat at Chesham United Reserves in the Spartan South Midlands Football League Division One.

Ryan Wade put Stony into the lead but goals in the 78th and 86th minutes from Bailey Morgan gave Chesham the win.

In Division Two, Old Bradwell United beat Grendon Rangers 3-1.

Shaun Carr scored for Willen but that was not enough for success as they succumbed to a 3-1 defeat at Pitstone and Ivinghoe.

New Bradwell St Peter lost 3-2 at Totternhoe. Chris Golding and Luke Hickson put New Bradwell 2-0 down but Tomi Jaiyeola pulled one back.

It was 3-1 to Totternhoe when Ryan Smith scored with 18 minutes remaining, although Demarlo Smith got a consolation in the 88th minute.

In the New City Heating Milton Keynes Sunday League, Punjab were the Premier League's top scorers, bagging eight without reply against a gallant Willen.

Shock of the day was Inter Faith's 6-2 win against a rapidly declining New Bradwell. League leaders Scot Wharfside overcame Olney 4-1.

In Division One Swanfica continued their good form by beating MK United 6-0. The top two sides both won with the Open University defeating Stanton Manor 4-2 and Southcott A maintained the league's only 100 per cent record by downing Buckingham United A 4-1.

Padbury and Stoke Hammond also shared the spoils, 1-1.

In Division Two Bucks Biz returned to winning ways defeating IDW 2-0. Buckingham United B produced a shock 4-1 victory against Stacey Bushes.

Bletchley Wanderers divided the points with Newport Albion, 2-2, while inconsistent NHBC lost out 5-2 to Stantonbury Social Elite.

Next week's top game sees Stony Stratford entertain Punjab United.

Lightning strike back

Good finish: Grant McPherson hailed Lightning's comeback victory

MK LIGHTNING'S Grant McPherson admitted the side's performance wasn't good enough when they succumbed to a 3-0 defeat against Sheffield Steeldogs on Saturday.

But Lightning struck back with aplomb as they returned from 3-1 down with eight minutes to go to grab an unlikely 4-3 victory over Basingstoke Bison on Sunday.

And that success helped the team finish the weekend on a positive note, according to McPherson.

"It was very disappointing on Saturday," he said.

"We were a bit flat which isn't like us and we let them play their game.

"We were so angry with ourselves.

"We needed to make sure we didn't finish with no points so the lads all said that we needed to get those two goals back against Basingstoke and take it to overtime, but to get the three goals was great."

Three Lightning powerplay goals in the last eight minutes turned their clash with Basingstoke Bison on its head.

It was ultimately Bison's late indiscipline which cost them the points.

Janne Jokila set up Tom Carlon to register on the five on three powerplay after 52mins 31secs.

Carl Graham was sin binned shortly after and this time Michael Farn won possession and crashed home a shot from just inside the blue line to level the scores at 54mins 29secs.

Few home fans could have predicted a further powerplay goal but MK had other ideas and Carlon made the pass across the back of the goal for Jokila, who found the smallest of gaps to sneak the winner home with two minutes left.

Saturday's trip to Sheffield Steeldogs was miserable when they lost 3-0 in their first shut-out loss since December 9.

Lightning are fourth in both the English Premier League league and cup tables.

DRAGON BOAT RACING

Dragon racing returns

THE Henley Winter Series for dragon boat racing has begun and six new members of the Secklow Hundred club in Milton Keynes took to the water.

The series, which began on Remembrance Sunday, comprises a long distance time trial over a circular race course of 7.5 km, with a turn around two islands at each end of the course.

The turns and staggered start provided exciting racing for the crews.

Another three long distance dragon boat time trials will take place in the series which has been running since 2004.

With other crews in sight, the racing began in staggered starts and all 40 Secklow Hundred crew members dug deep, reacting to every call from stroke Jill Richardson and the team's drummer, who helped the paddlers keep on the best course by providing them with the beat to keep to the correct rhythm.

The team were caught by Hurricanes soon after the beginning, a dragon boat crew which comes from Wraysbury.

It meant it was a disappointing beginning to the race for Secklow Hundred, pictured, but the Hurricanes hung on well to their wash and they took time to pull away from the Milton Keynes-based side.

The journey back after Temple Island was a long one for the team as it was against the flow of the river and the crew finished seventh to mark a good start in the first race of the winter series.

"The new members of the club had a very exhausting but exciting experience and are looking forward to the next race in the series," said club member Clare Lawson.

"It was exciting to be racing after the disappointment of last year when every race was cancelled due to either the river flow being too strong or snowy conditions."

The race followed a successful summer season of sprint races, with Secklow finishing fifth overall in the national finals in September.

Dragon Boat Racing grew out of China 2,000 years ago and has spread across the world into a popular team sport enjoyed by millions of people. Secklow Hundred are one of the UK's top crews and race in the National League, Premier Division.

RUGBY UNION

Bletchley surpass 100 points in 15-try win

BLETCHLEY battered Swindon College Old Boys 101-0 in an emphatic victory which sent them top of the Southern Counties North.

Previous leaders Milton Keynes suffered a shock 25-12 defeat to lowly Wallingford, who had previously won just one game, to move down to third in the league.

Their local rivals Bletchley had no such worries though as they scored ten tries in the first half, nine of them converted, to reach the interval 68-0 up.

It only took two minutes for George Harman to break the deadlock, and further tries flowed from Dan Read (2), Phil Harman, scrum half Tom Foster, John Kirwan, Ty Stockil, Tom Grant, Kev Turnbull and Will Garrett. Phil Harman was the man with the boot until he got injured having struck the first seven conversions, and Read duly knocked over two before missing the final conversion.

The second half saw a further five tries scored as Garrett got his hat-trick with two more scores and Adam Wilkinson picked up a brace. Bletchley then broke the 100-mark as Wilkinson wrapped up his hat-trick and Read converted, leaving coaches Stuart van Rooyen and Pete Garrett 'very pleased'.

Wallingford started the better of the sides in their game against Milton Keynes, working their way into a 15-0 lead before Ollie Fountain pulled a try back for MK. Ash Targett scored a converted try to bring Milton Keynes within three points of their opposition, but Wallingford knocked over a penalty to make it 18-12. Milton Keynes were camped in the Wallingford 22 metre mark as the game wore on, but they were unable to gain the converted try that was needed with final passes going astray.

With just a minute to go a loose pass gave Wallingford an easy score as they sealed the win.

In Midlands 2 East, eighth place Olney won 33-9 at Oadby Wyggestonians.

SPORTSSHORTS

HOCKEY

MILTON Keynes Men's 1sts picked up their second point of the season thanks to a 1-1 draw at Old Georgians, but they are still searching for a maiden victory.

Giacomo Palmiero was the scorer for MK who are 11th out of the 12 teams in the South Hockey League Premier Division One. Sam Beere was the scorer for Old Georgians.

The Ladies 1sts are also 11th out of 12 in the South Clubs' Division 3A after they were beaten 4-0 at Hampstead and Westminster 2nds.

They have won one and drawn one of their seven matches so far, with five defeats.

FENCING

MILTON Keynes Fencing Club had a great start to the season in the Three Counties League on Saturday morning with a comfortable 13-5 victory away to Salle Hadalin (Stevenage).

The squad comprised of Mark Wilson (captain), Thomas Jones, David Norris and debutante Steve Reynolds, and the former two were undefeated in their fights.

Their next match is scheduled to be at home to Watford on November 21.

Milton Keynes Fencing meet in Stantonbury Leisure Centre on Thursday evenings at 8pm.

To join and have a free first session, go to www.mkfencing.org.uk.

ATHLETICS

MARSHALL Milton Keynes Athletic Club's Wolverton Five race takes place on November 23.

Despite the name the race will start at the Willen Peace Pagoda at 2pm.

It was another good turnout by the club for the second Chiltern Cross Country League match in Oxford, where the team secured a creditable second place behind league leaders Bedford & County. Bedford lead the table by more than 600 points.

The best placed Milton Keynes team was the Veteran Women with an excellent first place.

Louis Clarke (M17) broke Chad Lambert's record for the Harrow School "Long Ducker" 10 mile run, winning in an excellent time of 58m 32s.

In another unusual race Geoff New (M40) was 58th in the Grand Union Canal Half Marathon near Uxbridge finishing in 94m 48s.

HANDBALL

MK Oly Cats picked up their second win in game two of the season with another good display.

Oly Cats are undefeated in Midlands Division 1 after a 49-24 away win over Coventry Handball's second team on Sunday.

Elliot James was top scorer with 10 goals, while Matt Lee notched up seven.

John Peace and Daniel McMillan got half a dozen goals apiece, while it was five goals for Alfie Martin and Mark Hawkins.

Other scorers included Ben Howards (four), a hat-trick for George Moore, Peter Franko (two) and Haruna Jallow Sey (one).

Halifax striker could give Dons something extra

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

DONS manager Karl Robinson said he would be taking a further look at FC Halifax Town striker Lee Gregory following the FA Cup first round tie between the two sides.

Gregory got Halifax's goal in Dons' 4-1 win at stadiummk, and Robinson believes the striker could fit into the MK Dons style of play.

"I knew Lee was going to be a threat on Saturday," said Robinson.

"He likes to play on the shoulder of the defender. He's talented and he's a player we're going to watch over the forthcoming weeks.

"I think he could play for us. He retains the ball very well, runs channels, his work rate was phenomenal and he competed with Shaun Williams aerially.

"He caused problems for Jordan Spence as well so he has the components but I've only seen him once.

"There were a few scouts watching him as well though so if it gets to a bidding war we'll be out but we'll have to see how that materialises."

Meanwhile, Dons' League One trip to Oldham Athletic on Saturday has been called off because the Latics have three players on international duty, and Robinson has mixed emotions about the cancellation.

He said it was a blessing in terms of giving injured players such as David Martin and Dele Alli an extra week to recover, but with the Dons having won their last two games, Robinson was also frustrated that his side will have to wait another week to try and make it three victories in a row.

"It's difficult for us to take but you've got to respect where they are," said Robinson. "We were ready to play but Lee Johnson has to make the decision for his team.

"We respect that and now we'll play the game in the midst of January probably.

"We need to find that competitive edge internally to make sure we don't come off our sharpness.

"But at the same time, it's maybe not come at a bad time for Patrick Bamford to get a bit of a rest and others who have played a lot of games.

"This window gives David Martin, Luke Chadwick, Dean Bowditch, Dele Alli and Ben Reeves time to recover so we'll look stronger when we're back a week on Saturday."

Dons also have their share of internationals, with Lee Hodson in Turkey with Northern Ireland and Samir Carruthers playing with the Republic of Ireland U21 squad.

Robinson said he would utilise the free weekend to watch Bradford City, who Dons play next in the league a week on Saturday.

And while the players may have the weekend off, their workload has certainly not decreased.

Robinson and his staff have devised a pre-season style programme for the players to work on for the next week.

A behind closed doors friendly with a Premier League club has also been arranged.

Brendan Galloway scored his first senior goal for the club on Saturday, and Robinson is glad to see his progress is going under the radar.

"If you want to build teams you've got to keep some of your young players here and he's a talent," he said.

"He's got to keep his feet firmly on the ground though now. He's done nothing yet."

Closer look: MK Dons manager Karl Robinson said his scouts would be watching FC Halifax Town striker Lee Gregory after he scored on Saturday

Teenage golfer wins selection to England U18 team and heads to Spain

TEENAGE star Shamiso Hatchard has continued her storming success by being selected to join the England Golf U18 Advanced Apprenticeship in Sporting Excellence (AASE) squad.

Along with a full day selection procedure with an England golf coach and manager, Shamiso was required to provide England Golf with a CV to gain the recognition.

Another requirement of her reaching the squad was that she had to pass a minimum of five GSCEs, including maths and English, and she completed her qualifications at The Webber Independent School on Soskin Drive, Stantonbury.

Shamiso holds a handicap of four and is one of the country's most promising female golfers after following in her father's footsteps and developing a passion for the sport at the tender age of just eight.

This month, she will compete in the Junior European Open event in Andalucia, widely believed to be one of the toughest tests in junior golf as the finals in Spain are staged over five rounds including Finca Cortesin, the venue for the Volvo World Matchplay.

Hatchard hopes it will be the start of a long and successful career.

"My selection for the England Golf U18 regional squad is another significant milestone in my career," said the 16-year-old.

"I hope to build on this with a view to obtaining a golfing scholarship at a top US university."

Webber's Principal Sue Vig added that the school is proud of their student's achievements to date.

She said: "We are incredibly proud of Shamiso and feel privileged to have watched her progress in her golfing career.

"We have been able to support Shamiso in her education which has played an important part in her being selected for the squad."
